

12 months
1st Year ANATOMIC PATHOLOGY	Autopsy		Surgical Pathology (General, Women's Pathology and Subspecialties)					M o l D x	Autopsy		Elec- tive	IS
2nd Year ANATOMIC PATHOLOGY	Cytology	Pediatric Pathology	FP	Surgical Pathology (General, Women's Pathology and Subspecialties)				IS	Neuropath	Autopsy
3rd Year CLINICAL PATHOLOGY	Hematology		Clinical Chemistry			Blood Bank		Microbiology
4th Year CLINICAL PATHOLOGY AND ELECTIVES	Advanced CP Rotations (Core or Subspecialty Labs)					Electives (AP or CP Chief Residency, Subspecialty AP or CP labs, Clinical Research)
5th Year CREDENTIALLING YEAR	Subspecialty AP or Research

Mol Dx = Molecular Diagnostics; IS = Independent Study; FP = Forensic Pathology; AP = Autopsy Pathology; CP = Clinical Pathology; Elective = Neuropathology, Hematopathology, Cardiac/Renal

Typical AP 3rd year = AP years 1 and 2 as above. Followed by 3 months advanced general surgical pathology; 3-9 months AP subspecialty rotations or single subspecialty or research.

Typical CP 3rd year = CP 1 and 2 as above. Followed by research or CP subspecialty.